

...if trees could speak and shrubs could whisper, we would hear in the silence a dialogue ongoing...

to mark the

Worlds Interfaith Harmony Week.
Thursday 1 – Wednesday 7 February 2018

individuals, students, groups sharing a world-view, and interfaith groups are invited to take part in a walking meditation, a convivial lunch and a 'listening' conversation at

Evera
Centre of Renewal
14 Forest Street, Trentham

A meditative walk in a bushland setting, between sacred sites dedicated to the world's main worldviews, including secular humanism.

A shared lunch: bring something to share; drinks and cooking facilities are available.

A conversation, listening for what makes sense in our differences and for the meaning of what we have in common.

Open each day of the week from 1 to 7 February. Other days by appointment.

Information and bookings: Henk Bak, convener, mindful of bushfire season.

ph. 54241702; email: hbak@westnet.com.au

Contribution: by donation.

welcome to a new concept – a new venue – a new conversation

Walking Meditation at Evera

Indigenous Spirituality

Hinduism

Shinto

Islam

Ocean of Life

Judaism

Dao

Christianity

Buddhism

Treading on common ground as sacred space between sacred places